

Case 7:14-cv-00463-JPJ-RSB Document 7 Filed 11/10/14 Page 1 of 3 Pageid#: 23

The court must dismiss any action or claim filed by a prisoner against a governmental entity or officer if the court determines the action or claim is “frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted; or seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(b)(1), (2). A “frivolous” claim is one that “lacks an arguable basis either in law or in fact.” Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 325, 327 (1989) (interpreting “frivolous” in former version of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(d)).

To state a claim under § 1983, the plaintiff must state facts showing that a person acting under color of state law undertook conduct that violated the plaintiff’s constitutional rights. See Cooper v. Sheehan, 735 F.3d 153, 158 (4th Cir. 2013) (“Section 1983 of Title 42 creates a cause of action against any person who, acting under color of state law, abridges a right arising under the Constitution or laws of the United States.”). Lawyers, even lawyers appointed by a state court to represent a criminal defendant, do not act under color of state law for purposes of § 1983. Polk County v. Dodson, 454 U.S. 312, 318-19 (1981). Because the defendant’s alleged professional deficiencies occurred while he was acting as Farewell’s defense attorney, those actions were not taken under color of state law as required to provide the basis for suit under § 1983. Therefore, I will summarily dismiss the action under § 1915A(b)(1) as frivolous.

A separate Final Order will be entered herewith.
